UNDER CONSTRUCTION:
SAMUEL A. GREEN HOUSE

Construction is nearly complete on the Samuel A. Green House in Elkins Park, set to open in fall 2011. The Samuel A. Green House, located on 5.2 beautiful acres, will be home to over 90 low-income seniors. The site is Federation Housing, Inc's 10th project and its first in Montgomery County.

Residents will enjoy a spacious community room designed for dining and social activities, multimedia center, technology room, chapel and library. The lush grounds feature walking trails, raised flower beds, gardens for the residents to grow vegetables and a covered back patio and gazebo.

This residence is dedicated in honor of Samuel A. Green, father of Daniel B. Green, and made possible by the tremendous generosity of Firstrust Bank and the Daniel B. and Florence E. Green Family Foundation, through the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia and local, state and federal financing.

For applications, please contact Joyce McCammitt at FHI, 215-673-6446.

Federation Housing Joins Mitzvah Mania!

This spring, FHI was thrilled to take part in the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia’s “Mitzvah Mania” community day of service. Fifteen Sidewater House senior residents joined with religious school children from Congregations of Shaare Shamayim, bar mitzvah students from Saligman Middle School and Jack M. Barrack Hebrew Academy, and two young ladies from Central High School for a morning of fun, food and creativity. Their finished product: stunning mosaics which will adorn Sidewater House for years to come. Thank you to all of our young volunteers, the boys from Father Judge High School who helped us with set-up and clean-up, Jacques Lurie and all the teachers from Shaare Shamayim and Jewish Federation for all of their support!
Passover
Residents in every FHI building celebrated the exodus of the Jewish people from slavery to freedom with singing, prayers, and a special Passover meal.

Purim
Children, in costumes, shared in the Purim holiday in many of our buildings. Third graders from Perelman Jewish Day School sang and delivered special Purim goodie packages to Saligman House residents.

Rabbi Sandra Berliner
FHI residents engage in a variety of activities and celebrations throughout the year, lifting their spirits and creating community.

Shabbat Across America
Saligman House residents observed “Shabbat Across Saligman” this winter with a Friday evening service. Gratz’s Jewish Community High School students helped to create a “freylach” (joyous) evening filled with singing and dancing.

As part of a national initiative, Goldstein and Sidewater residents celebrated “Shabbat Across America” in early March with a delicious catered Shabbat meal. Our servers were young volunteers from Saligman Middle School and the B’nai B’rith Youth Organization (BBYO).

Preschoolers from Federation Early Learning Services’ (FELS) Lassin Center sang and noshed on hamantaschen with our Rieder, Tabas and Center Park III residents and children from FELS’ Paley Center made the holiday brighter for Samuel Tabas Apartments residents.

A special thank you to The Passover League of Philadelphia, Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia, Golden Slipper and Har Zion for their generosity in supporting and creating seders for our residents and thank you as well to our staff and volunteers who gave so graciously of their time.

Dear Friends of Federation Housing, Inc.

Thank you for your tremendous support of FHI. This year, as we celebrate our 40th anniversary of providing the highest quality, affordable, independent senior housing in the region, we are reminded of our earliest days. In 1970, a group of concerned community leaders dedicated themselves to solving the housing crisis facing our elderly parents and grandparents. This commitment, by our board and staff, has never wavered.

We are proud to be building our 10th site this year, and our first in Montgomery County and look forward to expanding our reach throughout the Delaware Valley so that more seniors can call FHI home.

Your support is essential: without contributions from individuals, foundations and corporations, we could not provide the quality of life services and programs our residents critically need but could not otherwise afford. These include our Congregate Meal program, serving residents 16,500 nutritious meals per year; our Senior Transportation Program, offering 10,700 van rides per year for grocery shopping and medical appointments; our Chaplaincy Program, bringing one-on-one pastoral counseling and holiday celebrations to our residents throughout the year; and weekly educational and recreational programs which truly lift our residents' spirits and create community.

Please consider making a contribution today so that our senior residents may continue to enjoy the many programs and activities that are so vital to their well-being. We could not do what we do without you.

With all best wishes for a joyous end of the summer,

Eric D. Naftulin
Executive Vice President

P.S., We invite our residents' families to share in the joy of our High Holiday celebrations this fall. Please join us for services at no charge. Schedules will be posted in each building and on our website: www.federationhousing.org.
